

I was born in this wonderful world like everyone else. But my parents did not rejoice. Rather, they grieved. Why? You may ask... you see people call me mentally / physically retarded. If some error of nature occurred when I was growing in my mother's womb, was that my fault? Does it really matter that I am not like majority of people? I, too have feelings, right to be educated and live a respectful living. Then why do I get neglect, cold responses and ridicule?

Our belief is that each person disabled or non-disabled, has his or her own unique contribution to make and this contribution must be recognised by the society

A small help from you could make a difference in their lives.
Help us to put a smile in their face. Donate

Thanking you
